KARATE NOVA SCOTIA PRESENTS

Antonio Oliva is one of the pioneers of Martial Arts in Europe and a world leader in the study and teaching of Tactics in Combat Sports. He is a Founder Member of the CICAC (Centre for Scientific Research into Martial Arts and Combat Sports) and author of many varied studies on research, teaching and documentation, including: "Formalización del Karate Deportivo" [Formalization of Sports Karate] - 1982, "Enciclopedia Práctica de las Artes Marciales" [A practical Encyclopaedia of the Martial Arts] – 1985, "Combate Supremo" [Supreme Combat] – 2002 and "La Dimensión Cultural de las Artes Marciales y los Deportes de Combate" (The Cultural Dimension of Martial Arts and Combats Sports) – 2010.

He was born on 16th February 1948 in Lloret de Mar (Gerona – Spain). He won the Spanish Karate Championship five years in a row (1970 – 1974) and was runner-up in the European Championships held at Crystal Palace, London, in May 1974. As the technical director and national coach of the R.F.E.K. (Royal Spanish Karate Federation) he succeeded, in record time (1975 - 1980), in transforming the Spanish National Karate team from total anonymity to being world champions.

In 1974 he opened his own Martial Arts School in Madrid (1974 – 1994) which produced innumerable excellent coaches and competitors and became a training centre specializing in Top Competition. Over the years he has expanded his teaching, giving courses all over Spain and in many parts of the world, to date imparting training courses in 66 different countries: 28 in Europe, 10 in Asia, 11 in Africa, 14 in America and 3 in Oceania. Today his "Shiai-Kumite" Training Systems are considered the latest advance in this modality, and are increasingly being followed in all parts of the globe. At the last World Karate Championships held in Tokyo (2008), Rabat (2009) and Belgrade (2010) more than half the countries with medal winning competitors, had used his technical-tactical guidelines for training. Since 2008 he has conducted courses in Canada, Montenegro, USA, Austria, Spain, Venezuela, Ecuador, Colombia, Poland, China, Estonia, Latvia, the Czech Republic, Bulgaria, Congo, Senegal, Portugal, Benin, Hungary, Denmark, Japan, Egypt, Kazakhstan, Malaysia, Ireland, India, Cuba, Aruba, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, Belarus, Russia, Nigeria, Australia and Argentina to name just a few.

At the present time his greatest concern is the training of the trainers. Only by awakening and developing the critical and christic consciousness of the new generations will we be able to progress to new levels of evolution and this should be the priority for teachers, educators and coaches on the five continents.

Antonio Oliva is a believer and as such believes that Karate is Love. Love is the only force, the only power and the only knowledge with the capacity to drive our world to new levels of consciousness which are higher than those at which we currently live.

- Let us educate our children as Spirits, not as bodies.
- Let us teach Values, not subjects.
- Let us live in Unity, not separation.
- Let us universalize the Human being through this Unity.
- Peace is not enjoyed, it is created. Let us create Peace through the practice of the Martial Art and Combat Sports and let us project it in favour of the Unity of the New Humanity ~ Antonio Oliva Seba ~
